

◀ FIVE CENTURIES ON

The "Parusa" ("Sails") restaurant continues to delight its regular customers with new additions to the menu. Brand chef Igor Kornev's special offer for March is black tagliatelle with seafood and marinara sauce. The interesting thing about this sauce is that it was invented as long as five hundred years ago by ships' cooks — after the discovery of America and the arrival of tomatoes in the Old World. The sauce, which includes, besides tomatoes, garlic, onion and spicy herbs, would keep for a long time — often for a whole voyage... 9 Petrovskaya Kosa (Central Yacht Club). T: 929 9283..

TWO VECTORS ▶

The new B152/TEAROOM is a project concerned equally with food and art. For those interested in the latter there is a display of works by young artists, while those who enjoy eating well are served creations originally earmarked for destruction. Suffice it to say that the chef, Dmitry Belyaev, previously recommended himself by his work at the "Dom Byta" ("Home Life") restaurant. Just as he did there, he prepares fascinating dishes, often with a light "Asian" touch. It is worth trying his special tandoori chicken salad with goat's cheese, Asian-style chicken salad, curry with cod and scallops... 152 Nevsky Pr. (entrance in Telezhny Pereulok). T: (911) 924 3137.
